

1. Will an extension of time be allowed beyond the stated deadline of 4:00pm (CST) November 27, 2017 ?

a. No, late proposals will not be accepted

2. Are there mobility requirements for the solution beyond making the solution available on an internet browser on phones and tablets?

a. There are no vendor specific mobility requirements beyond the fact that the proposed solution must be accessible on all major web browsers (e.g., Internet Explorer, Google, Edge, Firefox, Safari, etc) and on all widely-used devices.

3. What Subject Matter Expertise will be provided by the LASC?

a. One part-time staff member who has been working with this project since its inception will be available 15 hours per week, and one contract attorney may be available

4. Are there automated sources of information for the Louisiana Charge Code data?

a. No

5. For the Integration and Interface, it's stated that initially, a download/export functionality will need to be provided. What format is supported for the export?

a. The export should support XML, CSV and text at a minimum.

6. Are there data migration efforts for this project? (e.g., bringing existing data into the new Charge Code system.)

a. There are no data migration efforts for this project

7. Are there any additional requirements for the public access to the data?

a. No

8. Will time and materials budget proposals be considered given the limited discovery available in the RFP?

a. No

9. Is the Louisiana Supreme Court open to a cloud-based implementation of the Charge Code system?

a. Yes