

HAVING TROUBLE ACCESSING RECOVERY FUNDS BECAUSE YOU LACK CLEAR TITLE TO A HOME YOU INHERITED?

- Was your house damaged by recent floods?
- Is the title or deed in someone else's name, like a parent or grandparent?
- Have you been living on the property for more than one year?
- Is the property valued at $75,000 or less? Or did the person from whom you inherited die more than 25 years ago?

If the title to your inherited home is not in your name but you need to access disaster-related funds to repair or restore your property, you may still be able to apply for rebuilding funds. To find out if you qualify, please call the Louisiana Civil Justice Center at 1-800-310-7029.
