List of Certified Mandarin Language Court Interpreters

Certification is the highest-level court interpreter in the Louisiana Judicial system. To become a "Certified" court interpreter in Louisiana, a candidate must already be a "Registered" court interpreter and additionally must pass the National Center of State Court (NCSC) Oral Certification Examination (oral exam) as administered in Louisiana in accordance with NCSC testing protocols. A "Certified" court interpreter has tested skills in simultaneous and consecutive court interpreting as well as in sight translation and has scored at least a 70% percent on each testing section.

The following interpreters have successfully completed all of the above requirements to become "Certified" court interpreters in the Mandarin language.
