2016 LPOR LEGAL SEMINAR: SCHEDULE AND REGISTRATION FORM

We are offering four (4) sessions of the 2016 LPOR Legal Seminar designed for the following purposes:

- To explain how the Registry works.
- To explain the appropriate use of the mandatory order forms.
- To identify and discuss state and federal laws related to court protections for those affected by domestic abuse, dating violence, stalking, and sexual assault.
- To disseminate the updated v.9 version of the Guide to the LPOR, the standardized forms, and the related interactive software.

Those who should attend include, but are not limited to the following: Family violence program staff/legal advocates, victim assistance coordinators, clerk of court staff who work with petitioners seeking protections, court administrators, judicial law clerks, hearing officers, and attorneys who represent victims of domestic abuse/dating violence. (CLE for attorneys will be provided.)

ALL SEMINARS ARE FREE, BUT SEATING IS LIMITED, SO YOU MUST PRE-REGISTER TO ATTEND!

Sign-in and refreshments from 7:30 to 8:00 a.m., seminar begins at 8:00 a.m. and ends at 12:30 p.m.
