JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT COMPLAINT

The Judiciary Commission of Louisiana is charged with the responsibility of investigating allegations of judicial misconduct pursuant to Article 5 '25 of the Louisiana Constitution and under the Code of Judicial Conduct.

The Judiciary Commission of Louisiana cannot give you legal advice. The Judiciary Commission only has the authority to review alleged ethical misconduct of a judge. It does not have the authority to overturn or change a judge's ruling, recuse or re-assign a judge from your case, postpone your case, or take any legal action on your behalf. If you are dissatisfied with your judgment or the judge's ruling, you may wish to consult an attorney regarding your legal options.
