IN RE: ALEX ORLANDO LEWIS, III

ORDER

---

Respondent is the subject of three sets of formal charges filed by the Office of Disciplinary Counsel (“ODC”). The first set of charges encompasses twelve counts of misconduct and alleges that respondent failed to competently represent his client, failed to communicate with his client, neglected a legal matter, failed to promptly remit funds to third-party medical providers, commingled and converted client and third-party funds, knowingly disobeyed a court order, and failed to cooperate with the ODC in its investigation. The second set of charges encompasses four counts of misconduct and alleges that respondent negotiated a settlement draft before executing the release, then subsequently refused to return the release to the insurer. In addition, respondent failed to cooperate with the ODC in its investigation of that matter. Finally, the third set of charges encompasses two counts of misconduct and alleges that respondent neglected a legal matter, failed to communicate with his client, engaged in dishonest and deceitful conduct, and failed to cooperate with the ODC in its investigation. In addition to the three sets of pending formal charges, respondent is also the subject of seven open investigative files.

Respondent now seeks to permanently resign from the practice of law in lieu of discipline. The ODC has concurred in respondent’s petition.
