SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

No. 2005-KP-2512

STATE OF LOUISIANA

VERSUS

ALAN B. JAMES

CALOGERO, Chief Justice, additionally concurs and assigns reasons.

Because the pro se respondent is unrepresented and the court’s present action grant’s the State’s writ application with reasons, which the respondent will see for the first time upon receipt of this ruling, I additionally concur to point out what the respondent no doubt already knows: Under the rules of this court, namely La. Sup. Ct. Rule IX, the respondent may indeed seek a rehearing and file a brief or reasons in support of his application for rehearing.
