ORDER

La. Const. Art. V, § 8(B) provides that a “majority of the judges sitting in a case must concur to render judgment.” Upon remand and rehearing en banc, the court of appeal’s decree does not reflect a majority judgment on each of the issues considered in the instant case.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that court of appeal render a decree reflecting a majority vote on each of the issues presented.

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, this _____ day of September, 2007.
