

SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

No. 2014-C-1705

SANDRA JACKSON DAVIS

versus

LEMCI, LLC, et al.

Hughes, J., concurring in denial of the writ.

I agree that the writ application should be denied. Both the trial court and the appellate court concluded that notice was lacking and the tax sale was subject to nullification.

However, I agree with Judge Peters that this matter should be governed by the law on tax sales and not that of the possessory or petitory actions.
