

SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

2014-CJ-2509

STATE OF LOUISIANA IN THE INTEREST OF
A.A., J.A., A.D., H.D., & J.D.

Hughes, J., additionally concurring.

I concur with this court's opinion as legally correct. As noted, if admissible proof is forthcoming to support the allegations regarding the two oldest children, a court order may be sought to protect those children. However, care should be taken not to needlessly disrupt the lives of the three younger children. They are not pawns to coerce or punish the parents.