SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

No. 14-KH-1664

STATE EX REL. BYRON RENDELL JONES

v.

STATE OF LOUISIANA

On Supervisory and/or Remedial Writs from the 22nd Judicial District Court, Parish of St. Tammany

PER CURIAM:

Not considered. La.S.Ct. Rule IX § 6 (“An application for rehearing will not be considered when the court has merely granted or denied an application for a writ of certiorari or a remedial or other supervisory writ”).

Similar to federal habeas, see 28 U.S.C. § 2244, Louisiana’s post-conviction procedures envision the filing of second or successive petitions only under the narrow circumstances provided for in La.C.Cr.P. art. 930.4. Notably, the Legislature in 2013 La. Acts 251 amended that article to make the procedural bars against granting relief on successive filings mandatory. Relator’s claims are now all fully litigated in state collateral proceedings in accordance with La.C.Cr.P. art. 930.6 and the denial of relief has become final. Hereafter, unless relator can show that one of the narrow exceptions authorizing the filing of a successive application applies, relator has exhausted his right to state collateral review.
