SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

No. 15-KH-0348

STATE EX REL. ADONIS HARRIS

v.

STATE OF LOUISIANA

On Supervisory Writs to the Orleans Criminal District Court, Parish of Orleans

PER CURIAM:

Denied. Relator has failed to satisfy the post-conviction burden of proof on his claim that his guilty pleas were not willingly, knowingly, and voluntarily entered. See La.C.Cr.P. art. 930.2. In addition, relator's alternative sentencing claim is not cognizable on collateral review. See La.C.Cr.P. art. 930.3; State ex rel. Melinie v. State, 93-1380 (La. 1/12/96), 665 So.2d 1172; see also La.C.Cr.P. art. 881.2(A)(2).

Relator has now fully litigated his application for post-conviction relief in state court. Similar to federal habeas relief, see 28 U.S.C. § 2244, Louisiana post-conviction procedure envisions the filing of a second or successive application only under the narrow circumstances provided in La.C.Cr.P. art. 930.4 and within the limitations period as set out in La.C.Cr.P. art. 930.8. Notably, the Legislature in 2013 La. Acts 251 amended that article to make the procedural bars against successive filings mandatory. Relator's claims have now been fully litigated in accord with La.C.Cr.P. art. 930.6, and this denial is final. Hereafter, unless he can show that one of the narrow exceptions authorizing the filing of a successive application applies, relator has exhausted his right to state collateral review. The District Court is ordered to record a minute entry consistent with this per curiam.
