

APPLICANTS ELIGIBLE FOR MAKE-UP CIVIL CODE I TEST DUE TO HURRICANE KATRINA.

The answers to the Civil Code I section of the July 2005 Louisiana Bar Examination for the following applicants were lost in the floods caused by Hurricane Katrina, and those answers would have determined whether the following applicants passed or conditionally failed the Bar Exam.

To minimize the effect of this unavoidable occurrence, a special make-up Civil Code I exam will be administered for these applicants on Saturday, November 5, 2005, from 10:00 a.m. until noon, at the offices of the Louisiana Committee on Bar Admissions at 2800 Veterans Memorial Boulevard, Suite 310, Metairie, Louisiana. The results of this make-up exam will be communicated to the applicants on or before Friday, November 11, 2005.

Applicants who pass the Louisiana Bar Examination by virtue of their performance on this make-up exam, and who otherwise meet the criteria for admission to the Louisiana Bar, will be sworn in by November 18, 2005. Further details regarding this make-up exam have been mailed to these applicants on October 13, and sent by email on October 14, 2005.
