Rule - 15.0	(a) Those weeks beginning with the first Monday of each month, except the months of June, August and October, shall be designated as criminal weeks.
Appendix - 15.0	(b) Those weeks beginning with the last Monday of each month, except the months of November, unless it has five (5) Thursdays and December are designated as the usual criminal jury weeks. Special criminal juries may be called and impaneled from time to time as ordered by the Court.
Assignment of Cases, Filing of Motions, Pre- Trial and Status Conferences	(c) Pursuant to Louisiana Supreme Court Rule XXV, each person who has served upon a grand or petit jury shall be exempt from jury service for a period of Four (4) years after such service.
Amended effective January 1, 2016.	PRE-TRIAL AND OTHER PUBLICITY
	(a) When a crime is believed to have been committed, pertinent facts relating to the crime itself and the investigative procedure shall not be disclosed except to the extent necessary to aid in the investigation, to assist in the apprehension of the suspect, and/or to warn the public of any danger.
	(b) Participation in, or permitting the deliberate placing of a person who is in custody for photographing or televising by representatives of the news media and/or the interviewing by representatives of the news media of a person in custody is prohibited and may be punished by contempt.
	(c) From time of arrest, issuance of an arrest warrant, or the filing of any complaint, information, or indictment in any criminal matter, until the completion of trial or disposition without trial, no person to whom these rules are applicable shall release, or authorize the release of any extra judicial statement, for dissemination by any means of public communications, relating to that matter and concerning: (1) the prior criminal record (including arrest, indictments, or other charges of crime), or the character or reputation of the accused, except that the officer may make a factual statement of the accused=s name, age, residence, occupation, and family status, and if the accused has not been apprehended, may release any information necessary to aid in apprehension or to warn the public of any dangers which may be present;

(2) the existence or contents of any confession, admission or statement given by the accused, or the refusal or failure of the accused to make any statement, except that the officer may announce without further comment that the accused denies the charges made;

(3) the performance of any examination or tests or the accused=s refusal or failure to submit to an examination or test;

(4) the identity, testimony, or credibility of prospective witnesses, except that the officer may announce the identity of the victim if authorized and if the announcement is not otherwise prohibited by law;

(5) the possibility of a plea to the offense charged or a lesser offense; and

(6) any opinion as to the accused=s guilt or innocence or as to the merits of the case or the evidence in the case.

(d) It shall be appropriate during this period for a law enforcement officer, if authorized by his superior:

(1) to announce the fact of arrest, as well as the time and place of arrest;

(2) to announce the identity of the investigating and arresting officer or agency and the length of the investigation;

(3) to disclose the nature, substance, or test of the charge including a brief description of the offense charged;

(4) to quote from, or refer without any comment to public records of the court in this case;

(5) to announce the scheduling of result or any stage in the judicial process; and

(6) to request assistance in obtaining evidence.

(e) The above and foregoing rules are applicable to and must be complied with by the following persons:

(1) all law enforcement officers;

(2) the personnel of this court;

(3) the clerk of this court and all personnel of his office;

(4) attorneys at law; and

(5) the district attorney, his assistants and personnel of his office.

At arraignment, each defendant or his then counsel of record, if any, shall receive a Criminal Scheduling Order which contains the deadlines for all filings as well as dates for hearings on motions and status conferences.

Prior to the time which any matter is scheduled, all attorneys participating in that matter shall be required to check upon service upon opposing parties and/or witnesses in such matter with the clerk of court and also the sheriff if there is no return on service in the record of the subject matter.

HABITUAL OFFENDER AND POST CONVICTION PROCEEDINGS

Bills of information filed pursuant to La. R.S. 15:529.1 and Post Conviction Relief Applications shall be assigned a new docket number.

ATTORNEY/BAIL HEARINGS

Any person entitled to a hearing pursuant to La. C.Cr.P. Art. 230.1 shall either be timely brought before the presiding judge for the purpose of fixing or amending bail and/or appointment of counsel in accordance with the provisions therein, or make appearance by telephone and/or audio/video electronic equipment, within the discretion of the presiding judge. (This language also appears in new Appendix 15.3 ("Court-Specific Rules on Simultaneous Appearance by a Party or Witness by Audio-Visual Transmission")).

COSTS/FINES INCOME TAX OFFSETS

In accordance with the provisions of La. C.Cr.P. Art. 886, the enforcement of fines, restitution, and costs in criminal proceedings may also be accomplished through the use of the filing of offset claims against defendants pursuant to La. R.S. 47:299.1 et seq. Retroactive effect may be given to this rule as allowed by law and if the procedures therefore are followed.

Title - III	Chapter Title - Assignment of Cases and Preliminary Motions
Chapter - 15	Upon presentation to the Court for a hearing conducted pursuant to Louisiana Code of Criminal Procedure article 230.1, the defendant shall be advised of his right to counsel and bail may be considered. If the defendant requests assistance from the district public defender, that defendant shall be referred to the public defender for evaluation and appointment of counsel. The defendant's appearance may be made, at the discretion of the presiding judge, by telephone and/or audio-visual electronic equipment.
Rule - 15.1
Appendix - 15.1
Appointment of Counsel
Amended effective October 12, 2015.	In the event no hearing is held because the prosecution is commenced by citation or the crime alleged is governed by pre-set bond and no appearance by the defendant is made, the court advises of the right to counsel at arraignment or answer hearing.

Court-Specific Rules Concerning Scheduling Hearings and Trials

|--|
| A. Hearings upon summary matters in family/domestic actions shall be scheduled in the order in which they are received after filing. Such matters shall ordinarily be assigned for hearing upon rule days. In those cases where counsel is aware of the opposing party's counsel, then prior to filing, counsel shall confer with opposing counsel to obtain potential hearing dates which present no conflict in scheduling. |
| B. Trials of ordinary actions and summary matters which are expected to take more than five (5) court hours to present shall be assigned only in connection with a status conference requested pursuant to Rule 9.14. |
| C. Any party may request in writing, or the court on its own motion may order, a La. C.C.P. Art. 1551 scheduling conference between counsel and the court to whom the case has been allotted. A party requesting such a conference must deliver the original and one copy of the request to the clerk of court. The clerk of court shall file the original and one copy of the request to the clerk of court. The clerk of court shall file the original in the suit record, stamp "filed" on the copy, and route the copy to the assigned judge. Within 30 days after receiving a request for a scheduling conference, the court shall schedule a conference for the purpose of addressing those matters as set forth in La. C.C.P. Art. 1551. The scheduling conference may be held by any appropriate means, including in person, by telephone, or teleconference, at the direction of the presiding judge. |
| D. Bench Trials |
| (1) Bench trials shall be set for commencement on Tuesdays of the second, third or fourth weeks of | each month, not to be in conflict with criminal jury terms. The selection of which particular week(s) in each month shall depend on the prior selection of Jury weeks.

(2) Bench trials shall be docketed in the order in which the motion requesting the setting is granted by the judge.

(3) In each week that bench trials are set, the entire week (beginning Tuesday) shall be reversed for the bench trials.

(4) Any bench trial that has not commenced prior to the end of the week shall be rescheduled for the next bench trial term as a preferential matter.

RULE DAYS

Rule Days shall start with a motion hour. Ordinarily, Rule Days shall be conducted only during non-criminal weeks on Mondays and Thursdays commencing at 9:30 a.m. During criminal weeks and civil jury weeks there will be motion hours only conducted on Thursdays commencing at 9:00 a.m.

MATTERS SCHEDULED BUT NOT HEARD

Whenever practicable, matters should be heard in the order placed on the docket. If the trial of a matter is begun but not concluded before court is adjourned, that trial should take precedence the following day, when practicable.

If the court is unable to hear a scheduled matter, the matter whenever practicable should be rescheduled for hearing at the next available date and time.

Title - IV	Chapter Title - Procedure
Chapter - 24	To provide for the expeditious administration of justice, the court will, where practicable, maintain the following order of business:

B. All civil warrants for delivery of children for custody or visitation shall include a specific reference to the date of the order upon which it is based as well as plans for the time of execution of the civil warrant.

C. The court may grant interim custody and/or visitation orders if a full hearing on the issues cannot be held and there is demonstrated a need for immediate access of the applicant to the child(ren). In such event, at a subsequent hearing custody and/or visitation may be modified without the necessity of showing any change in circumstances.
