Rule - 9.14

Fixing for Trial or Hearing; Scheduling Orders; Contact with Jurors

|--|
| 1. After a matter is contested and the clerk has received an adequate deposit, bond for costs, or judicial dispensation of security, a case may be placed on the trial docket by an oral motion in open court, or by a written motion in chambers, or by a written request directed to the clerk, by an attorney of record or by any party not represented by an attorney. After such a motion or request is made, if the clerk determines that the required deposit or bond is inadequate, he shall so notify the attorneys of record in the case, and the case shall not be placed on the trial docket unless an adequate deposit or bond is furnished or unless so ordered by the court. If an adequate deposit or bond is not furnished within sixty days after notice is mailed by the clerk, the case shall be dismissed, without prejudice, upon contradictory motion filed by any party thereto, if failure to comply with the notice continues to the date of trial on the motion. 2. Any party litigant who wishes to exercise the privilege of proceeding in forma pauperis, in addition to the affidavits required by C.C.P. Art. 5183, shall furnish the court with full and complete | information concerning their assets and liabilities in a form or substantially to a form which is on file with the clerk of court. If the court is not satisfied with the information furnished, it shall order the litigant, at a time convenient to the court, to show cause why it should be permitted to proceed in forma pauperis.

PRE-TRIAL CONFERENCES

1. In any civil action, upon request of counsel for plaintiff or defendant, or at its own direction, the court may order the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a pre-trial conference to consider the following:

(1) The simplification of the issues.

(2) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings.

(3) The possibility of obtaining admission of facts and the documents which will avoid unnecessary proof.

(4) The limitation of evidence.

(5) Such other matters as may aid the disposition of the action.

2. During the conference the parties are expected to disclose their respective positions and to stipulate as to all matters not at issue. The court will have such stipulations noted in order to conserve time at trial. The parties at pre-trial conferences will likewise be required to state objections to any procedure or to any exhibit or evidence which another party proposes to offer at trial.

3. At the pre-trial conference the court, in its discretion, may seek to advise and assist the litigant to a voluntary resolution of their disputes. Counsel will be expected to know what authority, if any, their respective clients have granted.

4. When a party or his counsel has been notified of a pre-trial conference and fails to appear, the court may remove the case from the trial docket, dismiss the case or take any other action as may be deemed proper under the circumstances.

SUBMITTING OF CASES; FILING OF BRIEFS AND EVIDENCE

1. In all contested hearings and non-jury trials, except criminal matters and suits for separation and divorce, counsel shall, unless relieved by the court, submit pre-hearing or pre-trial briefs not later than three (3) days prior to the hearing or trial. It is necessary to submit copies to opposing counsel.

2. A matter shall be considered as fully submitted for decision upon the conclusion of trial or hearing unless the court orders the record left open for the filing of additional evidence, or the filing of post trial briefs. The court shall designate time periods for such filings. Supplemental briefs will be allowed only by leave of court. When the record is left open the matter shall be considered as fully submitted on the day following the day of the last timely filing of evidence or a brief, or the last day for filing.

3. When post-trial or post-hearing briefs have been ordered, the clerk shall make available, upon request, the record to each attorney who is permitted to file a brief. It shall be the responsibility of the attorney borrowing the record to return it to the clerk of court at the expiration of the delays for filing the brief.

4. A copy of each post-trial or post-hearing brief filed in a pending case must be either handed or mailed to opposing counsel prior to filing the brief with the court, which shall be made to appear by a certificate of the attorney to that effect endorsed on the brief.
