Allotments: Signing of Pleadings in Allotted and Non-Allotted Cases

B. Suits for executory process, collection suits, petitions to make judgments executory shall be given to the Duty Judge for the purpose of signing orders but shall not be allotted to a division until such time that a hearing or trial date is requested.

Amended eff. Aug. 1, 2010.

C. When two or more suits are pending in the court which involve a cause or causes of action of sufficient similarity to justify consolidation for trial, the following procedure shall govern:

1. If the suits are allotted to the same division, the judge of that division may order consolidation;

2. If the suits are allotted to different divisions, the division having the suit with the lowest number shall handle the matters, and all of the remaining suits shall be transferred to that division by written motion signed by the judge from whom the case is transferred and the judge to whom the case is transferred.

3. When a case is reallocated, the division from which the case is transferred shall be allotted the next suit filed which is of the same nature (tort, domestic, complex litigation, etc.) as the suit transferred. If more than one suit is reallocated from one or both of the other divisions, the transferring division(s) shall be allotted the same number of suits as transferred, from the next suit(s) filed which are of the same nature (tort, domestic, etc.) as the suits which are transferred.

D. When a judge to whom a case is allotted is recused for any reason provided by law, the case shall be immediately and randomly reallocated to a division over which the recused judge does not preside. The recused judge shall be allotted the next suit filed which is of the same nature (tort, domestic, complex litigation, etc.) as the suit from which he/she was recused.

Fixing for Trial or Hearing; Scheduling
Orders; Contact with Jurors

Amended eff. Aug. 1,
2010.

A. Any party who desires a date for trial on the merits shall request a scheduling conference before requesting a trial date in all cases except successions, collection cases, domestic matters (except partitions), and uncontested matters. Exceptions to this rule may be made by the individual judges depending on the nature or seriousness of the case. Pretrial conferences may be scheduled at the discretion of the judge.

B. At least two judicial days before the final pretrial conference, counsel for all parties shall submit to the Court a signed statement including the following information:

1. A statement of undisputed facts and a formal stipulation thereof;
2. A statement of disputed facts;
3. A statement of undisputed law applicable to the case;
4. A statement of disputed law applicable to the case;
5. A memorandum of law supporting disputed law;
6. A list of all exhibits to be offered at trial;
7. A list of all witnesses and a summary of their testimony;
8. A list of all depositions and a summary of testimony therein;

9. A statement as to any other matters not coming under the previous headings which may be relevant to a prompt and expeditious disposition of the case; and

10. An estimate of the number of days required for trial.

Each judge may prepare or require to be prepared a final pretrial order governing discovery cutoff, final witness and exhibit lists, pretrial motions and other trial-related matters. Failure to comply therewith may result in exclusion of exhibits, witnesses, pretrial motions and further discovery.

C. The attorney who will try the case, or an attorney who is thoroughly familiar with the case, must attend the pretrial conference. The attorney in attendance must be prepared to enter into stipulations as to all aspects of the case and must possess firm settlement authority.

D. Where discovery is not complete by pretrial conference, the Court may either convert the pretrial conference into a status conference or complete the pretrial conference and fix a date beyond which no further discovery will be had.

E. Pretrial conferences may be held by telephone with the consent of the judge and all parties and must be arranged by the moving party.

Continuances

A party moving for a continuance of a case set for trial or hearing is required to communicate with all opponents relative to consent to the continuance and selection of a new date before filing the motion. The written motion for continuance shall contain a statement as to all parties having been contacted and the existence or nonexistence of objections to the continuance. When an objection to a continuance exists, the moving party shall immediately arrange a telephone conference with the judge and all counsel and unrepresented parties. A decision on the motion for continuance may be made by the judge based on this telephone conference unless the opposing parties request in writing a hearing on the motion or the parties reach an agreement on the continuance and/or a new date. New cut-off dates may be established at this time.

Agreements and Instructions

Agreements of counselor parties or instructions and requests to court officers will have no effect and will not be recognized by the Court unless reduced to writing, dated and signed by all parties or counsel, and filed into the record or stipulated in open court.

Motions, Exceptions and Rules, Generally

All exceptions, rules and motions, including those for appeal, shall be dismissed if mover, appellant or counsel fail to appear for the hearing of the motion, absent good cause. Motions and exceptions may be submitted on memoranda without court appearance, upon consent of all parties or by order of the court.

Appointment of Curators ad hoc, Notaries, Experts

The party initiating or requesting the appointment of a notary, attorney, or expert shall immediately pay said appointee upon completion of the services rendered, reserving the right to have the appointee's fees taxed as costs, as provided by law.

Title - III

Chapter Title - Allotment of Cases

Chapter - 14

All complaints, indictments and bills of information shall be divided into three classes: Felonies, Misdemeanors and Traffic.

Rule - 14.0

Cases classified as misdemeanors and traffic shall be assigned to the respective judge according to the court date given when the offense is committed.

Appendix - 14.0A

System of Random Allotment of Criminal Cases (Other than Traffic, Wildlife, and Appeals from Lower Courts)

All motions and other matters pertinent to a particular felony bill of information or indictment shall be allotted to the same division for hearing, except arraignments may be handled by any judge on any criminal court date. Should a bill of indictment or information contain a count or counts against other persons, each person and all counts thereto shall constitute one case and be randomly allotted to one division. For purposes of allotment only, each count pertaining to another person shall be treated as an individual case allotted to that division.

Amended eff. Aug. 1, 2010.

Title - III

Chapter Title - Allotment of Cases

Chapter - 14

Cases classified as Misdemeanors, Traffic, and Wildlife shall be assigned to the respective judge according to the court date given when the offense is committed.

Rule - 14.0

Appendix - 14.0B

Title - III

Chapter Title - Allotment of Cases

Chapter - 14

A. If a defendant has a felony case pending and previously allotted, any new felony arrest for that defendant shall be allotted to the division to which the pending felony was allotted.

Rule - 14.1

B. This “felonies-following-felonies” rule applies only to new and pending felony cases for an individual. When co-defendants are arrested and charged, that case or cases shall be randomly allotted, and the co-defendants’ cases shall be transferred to the division with the lowest-numbered case arising from that incident. If the judge of that division is subsequently recused, the case shall be re-allotted and transferred to the next lowest-numbered division. All re-allotted or transferred cases shall remain in the lowest-numbered division regardless of a change in status (completion, plea, dismissal, etc.) and regardless of the reason for re-allotment or transfer becoming moot.

Appendix - 14.1

Allotment - Defendant with More than One
Felony Case

Amended effective
December 1, 2011;
amended effective May 11, 2012.

C. A case with more than one defendant shall not be re-allotted under this rule on the grounds that there are one or more cases in a different division of court pending against one or more co-defendants.

D. Any judge may agree, at his or her option, to accept a multiple defendant case, such as described in paragraphs B and C hereof, if any defendant in that case has a felony pending in that judge's division.

E. For purposes of this rule, a felony case remains pending until any of the following events has occurred:

1) the statute of limitations on initiating prosecution runs, whether or not a motion to quash has been filed or ruled upon;

2) the statute of limitations on commencing trial runs, whether or not a motion to quash has been filed or ruled upon;

3) a change of booking is made, reducing the case to a misdemeanor;

4) a bill of information or indictment is filed or amended, reducing the case to a misdemeanor;

5) the District Attorney’s office enters a refusal, dismissal, or nolle prosequi in a case; or

6) a finding of guilt (with sentence having been imposed), not guilty, or not guilty by reason of insanity is entered on the record.

F. Misdemeanor cases which are amended or re-charged as felonies shall be subject to this rule.

G. The clerk of court, the district attorney, and defense counsel (retained or appointed) are required to promptly report to the judges involved if a defendant has pending cases allotted to different divisions of court. Such report may be made by filing a motion to have a case re-allotted or transferred under this rule.

H. All re-allotments under this rule shall be noted on the minutes of the record of the cases re-allotted, showing the number of the pending case(s) which caused the re-allotment to occur.

I. This rule shall be applied to cases pending as of the date of adoption of this rule, unless the sending judge(s) and the receiving judge agree that the interests of justice indicate that a case or cases should not be transferred. Such decision shall be shown in the minutes of the case which was sought to be transferred.

Title - III	Chapter Title - Assignment of Cases and Preliminary Motions
Chapter - 15	All new felony cases will be assigned a trial schedule at arraignment, which will contain pre-set dates for motions, status conferences and the trial date. Exceptions to this rule may be made by individual judges, depending on the nature or seriousness of the case.
Rule - 15.0
Appendix - 15.0	Venue
Assignment of Cases, Filing of Motions, Pre-Trial and Status Conferences	A. During the Misdemeanor Week of each division, that division will sit on the East Bank of the Parish at least one day during that week for the purpose of conducting traffic court, misdemeanor arraignments and trials and felony arraignments. Court will be held at the courthouse or the courthouse annex. All misdemeanors and traffic violations which arise on the East Bank will be scheduled for these designated days, including contempt hearings, compliance hearings and other related matters stemming from the original offense. All misdemeanors, traffic violations and other related matters which arise on the West Bank will be scheduled for one day per month during the Misdemeanor Week of each judge, as designated by the judge of each division at the Courthouse on the West Bank.
Amended eff. Aug. 1, 2010.	B. All persons attending traffic and misdemeanor court shall check in with personnel located at the courtroom entrance for that purpose.

Title - III	Chapter Title - Assignment of Cases and Preliminary Motions
Chapter - 15	On Mondays and Thursdays of each week at 8:30 a.m., or on any other day and time to be determined by the duty judge, the duty judge will appoint counsel in accordance with Code of Criminal Procedure Article 230.1. These hearings may be conducted in person at the Parish Jail or in court, or they may be conducted by telephone or audio-video electronic equipment, at the discretion of the duty judge.
