

TITLE IV

Chapter: 23 Chapter Title: ORGANIZATION OF THE COURT

Rule No: 23.1

Sections of Court

---

1st Judicial District
Court
Parish of Caddo

There shall be three sections of the Family Law Division to be designated as Sections D, E, and F. All cases shall be assigned to one of these sections in the manner set forth in these rules.

Judges presiding in the Civil or Family Law Division will continue to handle probation revocation hearings, sentences, and multiple offender matters in criminal cases in which the judge was presiding at the time of conviction and/or sentence.

---

22nd Judicial District
Court
Parishes of St.
Tammany and Washington

All civil and criminal orders shall be presented first to the Judge of the Family Court Division to whom the case is assigned, if available. If that Judge is not available, the order is to be submitted to the other Judge in Division K or L, if available. If a Judge is not available in Division K or L, orders which require immediate action may be presented to one of the other division Judges.

Amended effective
April 2, 2009
