Civil District Court	Attorneys are generally responsible for preparing typewritten judgments and orders; in cases where no attorney is enrolled, judgments and orders will be prepared by the Court. If a Written Stipulation has been executed, the typewritten judgment must be submitted within fifteen calendar days. All other judgments, whether a consent agreement or a considered decree, must be submitted within seven calendar days. Attorneys must abide by La. Dist. Ct. R. 9.5, even if the other party is not represented by counsel. If a dispute arises which causes a judgment to remain unsigned for more than ten days, the parties shall obtain a transcript of the oral judgment and set the matter for an immediate status conference or rule with the presiding judge.
