XML Data Format Compliance Form

1. All data files submitted by this court will be in compliance with the XML format specification outlined by the Court Management Information Systems (CMIS) Office of the Louisiana Supreme Court, as provided by R.S. 13:753.

2. The data elements will be ordered as directed in the specification and the file format will be in accordance with the XML specification document and shall include all data elements.

3. The data type, length, and format will not vary from the CMIS XML specification document.

4. The identification codes for Parish, Court, and agencies, in addition to CMIS defined values for all data elements will be accurate and up to date.

5. The data must be loadable into the CMIS repository.

_____   _____

Clerk of Court   Date