

SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

NO. 2023-B-0277

IN RE: RICHARD WILLIAM HUYE III

---

GLOBAL ORDER

---

Acting under the authority of Article V of the Louisiana Constitution of 1974, Louisiana Supreme Court Rule XIX, and the inherent power of this court, and considering the exigent circumstances concerning this matter,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that any hurricane and storm-related suit filed by McClenny, Moseley and Associates, PLLC in any Louisiana state court is hereby stayed effective immediately pending further orders of this court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the chief judge for each court shall provide, within twenty (20) days of this order, information to the Office of Disciplinary Counsel relative to all hurricane and storm-related suits filed by McClenny, Moseley and Associates, PLLC in his or her court, including the docket number and caption of the suit, presiding judge, and the current counsel of record with the affiliated law firm.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the stay may be lifted by the presiding judge in any case when there is a mutual consent of the parties to proceed with the litigation, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld by any party, or when a voluntary motion to dismiss has been or will be filed for the sole purpose of dismissing that lawsuit.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a copy of this order shall be sent to the chief judge of every court in Louisiana for immediate dissemination to all judges on the court.

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, this 10th day of May, 2023.

FOR THE COURT:

/s/ James T. Genovese
JUSTICE, SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA
