Fixing for Trial or Hearing; Scheduling Orders; Contact with Jurors

(A) Unless otherwise provided by law, or unless waived by the Court, no suit requiring a trial on the merits may be assigned or fixed except at or after a pretrial conference. Any party desiring to assign a case for trial shall, after all issues have been joined and after disposition of all completed or pending rules, motions, exceptions, interrogatories, requests for admissions, depositions, or other discovery proceedings, make a written request for a pretrial conference of the Judge presiding in the division to which the case has been allotted. After such a request has been made and a conference has been scheduled, the court shall be notified immediately if, for any reason, the conference is no longer necessary.

(B) The request for a pretrial conference shall certify that all issues have been joined; that there are no contemplated or pending rules, motions, exceptions or any type of discovery proceedings, formal or otherwise; that all known third party demands, interventions and amendments have been effected; and that the case is ready for trial. A copy of the pretrial request shall be sent to all counsel of record and the request shall contain the names and current addresses of all counsel or other parties to be notified.

(C) In the order in which valid, properly certified requests have been received, the Judge shall cause to be scheduled the pretrial conference and give reasonable notice to counsel for all parties.

(D) Upon the receipt by each party of the notice that the requested pretrial conference has been scheduled, each party shall submit to the presiding Judge before whom the conference is to be held a pretrial statement which shall set forth:

- (1) A brief but comprehensive statement of the party's contention.
- (2) A statement setting forth facts established by pleadings or by stipulations, agreement or admissions.
- (3) A statement setting forth the contested issues of law.
- (4) A statement setting forth the contested issues of fact.
- (5) A list and brief description of exhibits which party plans to offer in evidence.
- (6) A list of witnesses which party plans to call (except those which may be called for impeachment or rebuttal), and a short statement as to the nature (but not as to the content) of their testimony. Unless allowed by the Judge at the pretrial conference, no other witnesses may be called to testify except for good cause shown.
- (7) A statement as to any other matters not coming under the previous headings which may be relevant to a prompt and expeditious disposition of the case.
- (8) A statement as to the estimated length of time necessary to try the case.
- (9) A certificate shall follow the said statement:

"I hereby certify that I will be present at the pretrial conference scheduled for _____, 20____, at ____ o'clock __.M. That I will have in my possession at the conference all available documents and exhibits that I plan to introduce at the trial, that I will be the trial attorney in this matter, and that I will also have my trial calendar so that a mutually acceptable trial date may be selected at the conference."

(E) Counsel who have certified the pretrial statements as submitted to the court shall attend the conference and subsequent trial of case, unless permission is granted by the Court for substitute counsel to appear. Any substitute counsel permitted by the Court to attend the conference shall be knowledgeable of all aspects of the case and shall possess the necessary authority to commit his client as regards changes, stipulations and/or compromise settlement.

(F) At or after the conclusion of the pretrial conference the Judge shall sign an order setting the case for trial, which shall be filed in the suit record. Any agreements entered into at the conference shall be reduced to writing at the direction of the presiding Judge.

(G) The Court may refuse to permit any witness to testify or exhibit introduced into evidence which is not listed on the pre trial order or a court approved supplemental list timely filed.

Chapter Title - Allotment of Cases

Chapter - 14

There is no provision for a judge to sign pleadings in a criminal matter not allotted to that judge, except that the criminal duty judge may hear motions for preliminary examination and motions to reduce bond in all cases. All other motions and orders must be submitted to and signed by the allotted judge.

Rule - 14.0

Appendix - 14.0A

ALLOTMENT OF CRIMINAL CASES

System of Random Allotment of Criminal Cases (Other than Traffic, Wildlife, and Appeals from Lower Courts)

Allotment of Criminal Cases: At arraignment, or upon the filing of any contradictory motion, all criminal matters shall be allotted to a division of this court by random allotment. The Clerk of Court shall devise a system whereby felony criminal cases shall be equally divided among the divisions of court. The Clerk of Court shall further devise a system whereby misdemeanor criminal cases shall be equally divided among the divisions of court, but excluding the division designated by order of the court as the "Drug Treatment Court." Whenever more than one bill of information or indictment is filed against a defendant, or against multiple defendants in a related incident, they shall be allotted to the same division based upon the first matter allotted. Any post-conviction motion filed in a case not previously allotted shall be allotted to the division of court where the sentence was rendered.

Amended effective July 10, 2009; amended effective November 1, 2013; amended effective January 1, 2015; amended effective June 30, 2023.

Motions for preliminary examination or to reduce bail may be heard by the criminal duty judge then sitting or, at his discretion, by the succeeding criminal duty judge of the division to which the case is allotted.

If a defendant in a felony or misdemeanor matter is accepted into the Drug Treatment Court, that case and any other criminal matter pending against that defendant shall be re-allotted to the division of Court then designated as the Drug Court. This rule shall not cause any other matter to be allotted to the Drug Court solely because of this re-allotment, such as a companion case. If the Court by en banc order changes the designation of the Drug Court to another division, the cases of all defendants then participating in the Drug Court program shall be re-allotted to the newly designated division of Court in accordance with this rule.

In any pending criminal matter (including felony, misdemeanor, traffic, or other) that requires re-allotment due to recusal of the sitting judge of the division in which said matter is pending, a ball and/or marker for the division in which the matter was pending prior to recusal shall be returned to the box at the time of recusal and re-allotment. This paragraph shall apply to recusal and re-allotment of matters at any stage of said proceedings, whether pre-conviction or post-conviction.

Allotment of Criminal Cases: At arraignment, or upon the filing of any contradictory motion, all criminal matters shall be allotted to a division of this Court by random allotment. The Clerk of Court shall devise a system whereby felony criminal cases shall be equally divided among the divisions of court. The Clerk of Court shall further devise a system whereby misdemeanor criminal cases shall be equally divided among the divisions of court, but excluding the division designated by order of the Court as the "Drug Treatment Court." Whenever more than one bill of information or indictment is filed against a defendant, or against multiple defendants in a related incident, they shall be allotted to the same division based upon the first matter allotted.

Motions for preliminary examination or to reduce bail may be heard by the criminal duty judge then sitting or, at his discretion, by the succeeding criminal duty judge, or these matters may be heard by the judge of the division to which the case is allotted.

If a defendant in a felony or misdemeanor matter is accepted into the Drug Treatment Court, that case and any other criminal matter pending against that defendant shall be reallocated to the division of Court then designated as the Drug Court. This rule shall not cause any other matter to be allotted to the Drug Court solely because of this reallocation, such as a companion case. If the Court by en banc order changes the designation of the Drug Court to another division, the cases of all defendants then participating in the Drug Court program shall be reallocated to the newly designated division of Court in accordance with this rule.

CRIMINAL MATTERS

Each division of Court shall conduct magistrate hearings and arraignments on a bi-weekly basis, commencing with Division A on January 1, 2009, and continuing thereafter in alphabetical order.
