PRETRIAL BRIEFS

1. Except for good cause shown, a pre trial brief shall be submitted by the parties to a trial on the merits at least five (5) working days prior to trial. It will not be necessary to file such a brief in connection with rules for alimony or child support, or suits on notes or open accounts unless there are unusual or complicated issues of law or fact to be considered. Briefs shall set forth the facts expected to be proved, the issues involved and the law pertaining thereto in that order. Supplemental briefs may be filed at anytime. Failure to file a brief will result in such disciplinary action as the Court may deem necessary.
2. Original briefs shall be filed with the Clerk of Court and a copy shall be mailed or delivered to the trial judge.

COMMUNICATION WITH JURORS

1. No attorney, party litigant, or other person shall contact any prospective juror, or a member of a prospective juror's immediate family, for the purpose of obtaining information concerning the background of any prospective juror.
2. After trial or following a verdict, no juror has any obligation to speak to any person about any case and may refuse all interviews or comments. No person may make repeated requests for interviews or questions after a juror has expressed his or her desire not to be interviewed.
3. No juror or alternate juror who consents to be interviewed may disclose any information with respect to the following:
 - 1) The specific vote of any juror other than the juror being interviewed.
 - 2) The deliberations of the jury.
 - 3) For the purposes of obtaining evidence of improprieties in the jury's deliberation.
4. After trial or following a verdict, no party or their attorney shall, personally or through another person, contact, interview, examine or question any juror or alternate juror or any relative, friend or associate thereof, except on leave of court granted upon good cause shown.

Court-Specific Rules
Concerning Mediation

When it appears on the face of a petition or motion that custody or visitation is an issue for decision, the Court may require the parties to mediate. In any custody or visitation proceeding, if the rule is contested on the date fixed in the Order, when the case is called, a pre-trial conference will be held. If no settlement is agreed upon, the Court may require the parties to mediate their differences. The mediator shall be selected by the Court.

The Court may apportion the costs of the mediation between the parties. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, costs of mediation shall be equally divided between and paid by the parties. All mediation will be handled on a fee schedule based on income.

Noncompliance with the provisions of the order of Mediation will subject such party to the contempt powers of the Court.

Upon resolution of the controversies by the parties, the mediator shall prepare and provide to each party a written, signed and dated agreement, verified by the mediator, setting forth the settlement terms of the controversies. If an agreement is reached by the parties through mediation, a consent judgment and/or plan of mediation incorporating the agreement shall be prepared by respective counsel for each of the parties. The consent judgment and/or plan of mediation shall be submitted to the Court for its approval and signature.
