Rule 2.1(f).
Second Shelter
Status Hearing

(1) Purpose. The decision whether to remove a child(ren) from the home is a most significant one. During the initial stages, the most essential elements and participants are often unknown to the Court. As a result, the Court is forced to be guided by limited resources thereby placing the child(ren) in a limited position as to what is the safest location and person to temporarily place the child with. The primary purpose of the second shelter status hearing allows the parties to reconvene at a later date where pertinent information, such as the names of relatives, phone numbers, and the whereabouts of other key players becomes available to take custody of the child pending the unification of the family or termination of parental rights.

Adopted and effective Oct. 12,

(2) Setting. The second shelter status hearing may commence 15 days after the continued custody hearing or any time prior to a petition being filed. All parties required to attend shall be given notice at the continued custody hearing. The hearing shall be presided over by the Judge.

(3) Participants. The Court may require any and all parties to be present in order to ensure that the necessary information is gathered, thereby allowing the best interest of the child to be served.

(4) Scope. The second shelter status hearing will focus on the most appropriate placement for the child, and who is the most appropriate person (relative/friend/guardian/curator) under the circumstance to take temporary custody of the child. In reaching its decision, the Court may consider (but is not limited to) the following factors:

(1) The nature, quality, extent of involvement, and duration of the child's relationship with the person to assume custody;

(2) The age, developmental stage, needs of the child, and the likely impact that the placement will have on the child's physical, educational, and emotional development. Any special needs of the child must be considered, along with the mental and physical health of the child and the parties.

(3) The feasibility of preserving the relationship between the parent(s) and child through the suitable visitation arrangements, considering the logistics and financial circumstances of the parties;

(4) The child's preference, taking into consideration the age, maturity, and mental capacity of the child;

(5) Whether the placement of the child will advance and ensure a positive pattern of behavior from the child and the parent(s), whether the temporary placement is a wholesome and stable environment, and whether the custodian is able to provide a safe atmosphere for the child away from the neglecting and/or abusing parent(s).

(5) New Parties. If a new party is present, he shall be advised of his right to an attorney and, if necessary, one is appointed. The Court may explain the possible disposition of the case and answer any questions or resolve any issues regarding the processing of the case.

(6) Production of Information. Any information required shall be produced to all parties to the litigation.
